

THE ADVENTURES OF OSTRULIX MINUX

by Zena Saez (8 year old)

Once upon a time there was an alien called Ostrulix Minux. He escaped from his planet Mercury because it was too hot. He took a machine from his father and went to a planet called Earth. Two hours later he landed on an airport. The air traffic controller, called Sophie, could see a red dot in the radar. It was Ostrulix Minux's flying machine.

When he just touched the ground he transformed into a young 5 years old human boy. A pilot that had seen the little boy on the runway informed Sophie about. She called James, who was the driver of the "follow me" car, to collect and take him to the terminal. James found him in the hangar, where Ostrulix Minux was hiding its flying machine. James took him to the terminal as he was instructed, and Ostrulix Minux asked him who has been the first flying object in the Earth but James ignored him because he was too busy talking to Sophie.

Suddenly, he fell to the ground from the car because it was going really fast and the window was opened. Sophie saw him on the ground from the air traffic control tower, and she called to the doctor to cure him because he had two deep wounds in the head. The doctor cured him in the luggage lounge.

Ostrulix Minux was really scared of the human world so he ran straight to the luggage belt and went through a hole he had seen there. It was like a dark Roller Coaster. At the end, he saw some stairs and went down to the runway again.

Once there, he saw his friend Olivilux Manux who had been looking for him in every planet from the Solar System. Olivilux talked to him that all the planets had terrible monsters but he did survive. At first, he hadn't thought about going to the earth because the aliens were enemies from humans. Afterwards, they went to a new home far from the solar system where there were not monsters but a lot of peace.

Sophie was still in the control tower worrying about the little boy. At night, Ostrulix Minux, appeared in her dreams with one of his magic powers and said: "Do not worry about me, I am already safe!". When she got up she saw a beautiful present from Ostrulix Minux and she was very happy ever after.
